

Your legacy will change lives

Help those who keep Britain beautiful

A gift in your Will is a powerful way to show your appreciation for those who nurture and care for our country's beautiful gardens and green spaces. Any gift, large or small, can make a real lasting difference to the lives of people we support.

Throwing families a lifeline

When grower Ben, aged 45, suffered multiple organ failure and a stroke due to heart disease, his young family were left helpless as he recovered in hospital. Perennial was able to help with emergency childcare, financial assistance and legal advice. Now Ben is home but continues to suffer the long-term effects of his illness. With the help of legacy gifts, we will be there for the family for as long as it takes.

John's legacy

John was a Perennial volunteer for 13 years following a long gardening career with London Councils. When he was diagnosed with lung cancer Perennial was there to support him as and when he needed us. John chose to leave Perennial a gift in his Will and his legacy will help us support many more horticulturists in times of need and crisis.

Photographs have been posed by models.

Gifts in Wills contribute over 50% of Perennial's voluntary income.

Last year Perennial helped over 1,200 people, 15% more than in 2012. We helped them access over £1.5m in direct financial help. Gifts left in Wills are an important source of income for Perennial. Your gift will help ensure we continue to support horticulturists now and into the future.
