

RETIREMENT HOUSING EXPRESSION OF INTEREST FORM

Helping people
in horticulture
Perennial

Perennial has 6 independent living bungalows at Barton in Cambridgeshire: a mix of one and two bedroom homes. The properties are available for independent living for those aged 60 or over, who are retired from working in the horticultural industry or your late partner.

The information you give on this form allows us to assess the eligibility and housing need of you and those you include in this form. You may register for housing for a date in the future.

It is important that you give as much information as possible, answer all the questions which apply to you and provide copies of any documents requested.

Once you have completed the form you need to sign and date it before submitting to us. You can either scan and email to hwaddington@perennial.org.uk or post to Perennial, 115-117 Kingston Road, Leatherhead, Surrey, KT22 7SU.

Please only complete this form if you wish to be considered for housing at this scheme.
